AUDITORS' REPORT.

We, the subscribers, have this day examined the Treasurer's accounts, and find them well vouched and correctly cast, with a balance of one dollar and fourteen cents in the treasury.

ANANIAS FOWLER,
LEVI D. COLLINS,

Auditors.

Seabrook, N. H., January 31, 1918.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE TOWN OF SEABROOK:

No school report will be issued this year until Sept. 1, 1918, for the fiscal school year does not end until such time. In compliance with the State educational laws, the school committee is obliged to ask for appropriations at the annual school meeting to suffice until Aug. 31, 1919.

All school supplies have greatly increased in price, High School tuition also advanced, in fact all necessities pertaining to school life have rapidly increased in value.

Therefore, after thoughtful consideration the committee has compiled a budget of such expenses, the sum of which minus an estimated sum to be received from the State, they think is a conservative estimate to be appropriated for the maintenance of schools during this period.

Teachers' salaries,	$4,800 00
School supplies,	450 00
Transportation,	100 00
Fuel,	400 00
Janitors,	50 00
Rebate to parents on overcharge for tuition,	75 00
High School tuition,	1,177 00
Supervision,	150 00
Repairs,	200 00
Interest on note,	48 00
Flags and appurtenances,	10 00

$7,460 00

Estimate of funds expected from State for average attendance, approved teachers and literary fund,	$1,772 00
--	------------

Result, $5,688 00

The above sum is the appropriation approved and recommended by the school committee of the town of Seabrook, N. H.

WILLIAM H. SANBORN,
NORMAN L. CHASE.
